When Citing a Reprint Within Another Source

Give the information for the ORIGINAL SOURCE first:

- Author Last name, First name.
- Title of original source being cited in "quotation marks."
- Title of source in which the article was originally published in italics.
- Volume, issue, year of publication (if available). The format will vary here depending on what type of source you are citing (ex. Journal, magazine, newspaper, etc.).
- Page numbers.
- According to the MLA Handbook (158) you do not need to record the medium of the previous publication.

Give the information for the REPRINT next:

- "Rpt. in" is used to indicate the fact that your original source was reprinted.
- Title of the publication in italics.
- Authors (By), editors (Ed.), or compilers (Comp.) and following the abbreviation list names by First name, Last name.
- City: Publisher, Year.
- Page numbers.
- Medium of publication (print, web, etc.).
