

2018 English Department Scholarship The Betty Webb and Richard Norlin Memorial Prize

$1000 FIRST PRIZE! (plus additional prizes!)

Who is eligible: a current student at Palomar College who has not previously been awarded the Scholarship.

Qualifications: an English major or someone with a strong interest in the major who plans to transfer to a four-year college/university; a GPA of 3.0 or better; completion of English 100.

Applications Must Include:

1. A short letter of intent, explaining who you are and your qualifications. Make sure you include an email and your student ID so we can contact you. (about 500 words)
2. An essay of at least five hundred words which demonstrates your ability with the language. It may be a new essay or one that was previously submitted for an English class here at Palomar. (about 500 to 1000 words)
3. Recommendations from two Palomar College English instructors.

Applications due May 10th, 2018 by noon

Email kkearney@palomar.edu for more information

Please hand in your materials to Kevin Kearney's mailbox, Humanities 301E